During the winter, Big Sky offers over 600 skier days for non-profit groups donating a variety of lodging, lift tickets, rentals, lessons, meeting space and more.

A few of the great organizations that work with Big Sky and help others in and around the community:

Eagle Mount

Eagle Mount is an organization that facilitates and implements therapeutic recreational programs and opportunities to benefit people with disabilities and children with cancer, and provides support for their families. Big Sky Resort hosts Eagle Mount's Spring Fling and their fundraiser "Ski with the Eagles". www.eaglemount.org

Big Sky Youth Empowerment Project

The Big Sky Youth Empowerment Project provides disadvantaged youth the chance to get outside and learn a thing or two about themselves in the process. Big Sky Resort hosts this group for 12 weekends during the winter season as they grow inside and out. www.byep.org

Ophir Elementary School

Ophir is Big Sky's local K-8 school and hub for community families with small children. Big Sky Resort donates a season ski pass to every student, faculty and staff member every year. Each Friday during the heart of the winter season, Big Sky also hosts the students for lessons and skiing/snowboarding as part of the physical education program the school has in place.

U.S. Ski and Snowboard Association

Big Sky participates in the National U.S. Ski Team Day and donates $1 from every ticket sale that day to benefit rising athletes in the sport.
