Meeting and Convention Guide

Make your next meeting Big.

There are few places on earth where a person can participate in a thought-provoking, energetic conference session in the morning and see the sun set over a herd of wild American bison that very evening. Big Sky Resort is one of them.

We are a summer and winter conference destination with the meeting facilities, lodging, services and experienced staff to ensure happy participants and highly productive business events for as many as 750 attendees. And we are located in one of nature's great playgrounds — surrounded by towering peaks, clear streams and just 18 miles from the entrance to Yellowstone National Park.

The combination makes for a memorable, one-of-a-kind event, where participants tend to sport perpetual smiles nearly as wide as the Montana sky.

Lodging

Big Sky is a diverse resort with more than 750 rooms. We can offer your group most any option — comfortable, value-priced rooms; executive accommodations with in-suite whirlpool baths; the quintessential family condo — and that's just in the village itself. Nearby lodging can accommodate up to 2,000 guests.

Walkable meets gawkable.

Conference goers often remark on how easy our village is, not only on the eyes but also on the feet. Big Sky Resort sits at the base of Lone Peak, a wildly beautiful and singular landmark. The village is laid out so that hotels, condominiums, meeting facilities, spa services, shops and restaurants are a short, pleasant stroll apart.

This improves efficiency for large groups and makes it easy to operate on tight schedules. It also promotes networking, as event goers bump into one another and trade big ideas under our big sky.

Meetings as memorable as the scenery.

Big Sky Resort's Yellowstone Conference Center was built to serve and cater a range of meeting sizes and types. Our facilities and services ensure productive meetings, scheduling efficiency, festive banquets and, most importantly, satisfied attendees. Shown here are a few core facilities. A full listing is available at the end of this brochure.

The Missouri Ballroom is just the place for larger banquets and meetings. It can be divided into three separate rooms (the Jefferson, Madison and Gallatin) and it seats up to 750 guests.

The Amphitheatre features theater-quality video and audio, has excellent acoustics and seats 120 guests. It is the favored option for multimedia presentations and large breakout sessions.

The Talus Room is a large, windowed meeting room with an impressive view of the surrounding peaks. It makes a wonderful spot for a casual evening reception or elegant banquet. Capacity is 200 guests.

Our Breakout Rooms offer over a dozen different options providing the perfect fit for your sessions, from 12 and 16 seat boardrooms to 4,600 sq.ft. workshop spaces. Big Sky has the space, flexibility and technical services to make meetings work.

In Big Sky, we offer many ways to break out. Our Arnold Palmer-designed golf course is 18 scenic holes of Rocky Mountain golf nirvana. Our team-building areas include a world-class zipline, high ropes course and a paintball course. For more pastoral pursuits, our lift will take you to postcard views, mountain trails, and fields of wildflowers. In winter, we are a premier ski destination, offering The Biggest Skiing in America® with more than 5,500 acres of interconnected terrain and 4,350 vertical feet.

Break out a bit further, and you'll find a never-ending feast for the spirit — blue-ribbon trout fishing, whitewater rafting, and horseback riding nearby. Our experienced staff can help set up tours, outfitting, group sessions, equipment rentals, nature hikes, transportation and more — anywhere in the area.

on your satisfaction survey.

A destination can have it all, but all is nothing without excellent service. From the moment you begin working with Big Sky, you'll experience genuine Montana hospitality, people who are as friendly and helpful as our mountains are big.

Just as important, we're experienced. Big Sky hosts hundreds of major conferences each year. From physician's continuing education courses to large corporate and association events and even hosting the President of the United States, Big Sky's commitment to service and hospitality sets us apart. Discover a rare attraction:

Value.

We admit it, Big Sky is off the tired, beaten conference path. In some people's minds that equates to added expense. In reality, that isn't true. Planners and attendees are often surprised to discover that Big Sky is just as much an incredible value as it is an incredible destination.

Our lodging, dining and activity options enable us to create very attractive packages for most any budget. In fact, our rates and options are so attractive, a significant percentage of conference attendees bring their families and tack on a few extra days of vacation. Let our sales team create a proposal for your group, and discover how Big Sky delivers big value.
